(arrival 17 May)

Format of the program

The capacity building and training workshops is a combination of field visits, workshops, presentations, and discussions with relevant stakeholders from the local and regional level. You can find the map of the different REGALE venues in Vestland here.

About Bergen

Bergen is Norway's second largest city situated on the west coast, in Vestland county. The town has roughly 285,900 inhabitants and you can download a map of Bergen here.

- Accommodation and booking code

We have reserved rooms at Scandic Ørnen hotel, located in Bergen city center. It is around 5 mins walk to Amalie Skram upper secondary school where we have the first day seminar. The price is NOK 1118 per person per night, including breakfast. You can find more information at Ørnen hotel, we are going to book your rooms when we are aware of your flight situation.

- Transport to Bergen city from the airport

Bergen Airport, Flesland, is located 18 kilometers from the city centre. There are several efficient and easy alternatives for how to get from the airport to Bergen city center

- Bergen Light Rail (Bybanen):

From Bergen Airport Flesland you can take the light rail (bybanen) towards Byparken. It takes about 45 minutes and costs NOK 39 (4€). You buy the ticket with credit card at the airport stop. To come to the hotel, you get off at the Nygård stop and walk 4-5 minutes further along the street. You will see the hotel on your right side.

- Airport bus:

Another choice is the Airport Bus (Flybussen), which takes approximately 30 minutes. The bus costs NOK 159 (16€) if you buy the tickets online. If you buy the tickets on the bus, it costs 3€ extra. Read more about Airport bus and buy tickets online. You can get off at the Bergen bus station (Busstasjon). Scandic Ørnen hotel is just the other side of the station. You can see the hotel after you get off the bus.

- Taxi:

A taxi from Bergen Airport Flesland to Bergen city costs around 70 - 80€. The taxis are parked outside of the arrival terminal.

Information about Covid19 situation in Norway:
